LA TRAVIATA .- This opera was performed at CASH PAID FOR RAGS at the Office of the LOUIS-VILLE PAPER MILL, No. 477 Main st. d4 the theater last night, with a cast which made it almost perfect, leaving scarcely anything to be wished for, either in singing or acting. Its delicate music is in marked contrast to the vehemence and passion of that deflucretia Borgia, which was given on Wednesday night. And a yet wider difference exists between the singing of Parodi and Madame d: Wilhorst. The one carries the stage by storm, and forces the audience to feel her power not only by her clear, clarion tones, but by her Bourbon, Monongahela, Rye, Magfine knowledge of dramatic effect and splendid acting. Madame de Wilhorst does not impress ner auditors at first, though her voice is much more delicate and sympathetic in opera than in concert. Her acting is natural but not striking, rom a lack of nobility in her features. She sings, Commissioner of Deeds owever, with so much beauty and feeling that ther requisites are hardly desired. Her success n opera surprised as well as delighted her admir-

rs in Louisviile. Mr. Squires has had very few equals in this ountry. He has a tenor voice of remarkable purity and sweetness. 'It is not quite as strong as we desire, but he renders the music of his part vith exquisite feeling, and his acting chimes harmingly with the gentle characters he underakes. His Alfred Gern.out last night, was a good pecimen of his general style, though in some haracters he has greater scope. He is a great favorite with his auditors.

Amodio had but little to do in his character of Alfred's father, but his singing was good as usual. There are other characters which suit him etter than that in Traviata.

Miss Simon, a favorite in former years with the ouisville public, made her first appearance in his city in opera last night. She had nothing to lo by which she could come forward individually, which we regret, as she has a fine voice and a good musical education. The choruses were finely given, and the audi nce were so much pleased by the general rendiion of Traviata, that the principal singers were alled before the cartain several times. To-night the troop perform "Lucia di Lummer noor," with an excellent cast. Edgardo is, we earn, the favorite character of Mr. Squires .-Madame de Wilhorst appears as Lucia, and Amo dio as Lord Ashton.

THE ARCHE PANORAMA .- This beautiful work of fron-Stone China, and Earthenware, rt was witnessed by a large audience last night. We never saw such a perfect panorama; it is most passing beautiful." The glit ering mountains of e sparkling with a thousand diamond lights, and Goods, Girandoles, Knives, Forks, Carvers, Spoons, he deep, dark caverns where the long Arctic night seems to have its head quarters, are most nagnificently represented. We hope none will MOUSE FURNISHING GOODS. stay away because they have sometimes been humbugged by panoramas, for it will be cause of lastng regret if any fail to see this sublime, gorgeous pectacle. We speak of what we do know, and estify of what we have seen. We were particular struck with the stillness of the house. There ras no uneasy shuffling about on the seats, no whispering or laughing; every eye was fixed upon he painting, and the deepest attention was given WATER COOLERS. BATH TURS. o every scene. This was the greatest proof of he appreciation of the work that could be given. The painting will be exhibited again this evening, HOUSE-KEEPING ARTICLES GENERALLY. and also on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for amilies and children.

The Union Prayer Meeting is now held very morning in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian Church, on Third street. The atndance has increased since its removal from the Mechanics' Library Room, but is yet far short of what it ought to be. We are glad to learn that And south side Market street, between Brook and Floyd the Young Men's Christian Association have ta ken fresh hold, and evince a determination to do what is in their power to sustain these meetings out their efforts, in order to succeed, should mee with the hearty co-operation of the members of he various evangelical churches. In other places these meetings are crowded-why should it not be so here?

To morrow morning the exercises will be devo 454 Jefferson st., bet. Third and Fourth, ted to the young. Appropriate addresses may be MANUFACTURER, Importer and Deal-er in Fringes, Cords, Tassels, Buttons, all tinds of Worsted and Embroidering Patexpected. Of course Zanone has all other kinds of liquors at his store, on Fifth, between Main and the river.

WORK TO BE DONE .- Our street cleaners will have plenty of work to do now if they do their duty. The mud at nearly all of the crossings is ankledeep, and at some it is said to be without bottom. We hope to see a general scraping up IMPORTER OF GUNS, PISTOLS, and GUN MATERIAL, and Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Fishing Tackle and Sporting Apparatus. It seems to be indispensable to the completion of every physician's library. The present number is filled with rich gleanings from the best foreign journals. To be had at F. A. R. S. Forde, Esq., has retired from the Arrest of Railroad Obstructors. For sometime past obstructions have from time

About two months since, the able and efficient to time been placed upon the Jeffersonville Railroad, doing great injury to the engines and cars of the road, and placing the lives of thousands in

Superintendent of the road, Dr. Crothers, employed Mr. C. W. Seely, of Goshen, Deputy Marshal for the District of Indiana, to find and bring to justice the scoundrels who had been placing the obstructions on the road, and Mr. Seely sent Mr. Charles E. Smith, one of the detective police of Chicago, under special instructions, to Vienna, in Scott county .-Mr. Smith went to Vienna about four weeks since and immediately commenced his operations by gaining the confidence of two men upon whom icion rested, and succeeded in getting from them the secret of their operations. One of them. Robert H. Uimer, stated that he had been engaged in it for the last four years, and that he placed four cross ties on the road early Saturday night last, in such manner that if the train had struck it, it would have torn every car to pieces, and killed every passenger and employee on the train. Mr. Smith, and those employed by him, went up and came down on the train for the purpose of taking the obstruction off. Ulmer was held to bail in the sum of one thousand dollars, in default o which he was committed to jail to await his trial in the Scott Circuit Court. He is a most unmiti-

The other man, David Hubbard, was caught lacing a stick of wood on the road, for the purose of selling ginger-cakes and whisky to the assengers who might be delained by the accident, which he had undoubtedly done before, for the same purpose, (he being the depot keeper at Vinna.) Hubbard discovered at the time he was puting the stick on, that two men were watching im, and that prevented his foul design. Hubpard's object was to have the mail robbed at the same time. Hubbard was released, but im mediately taken to Indianapolis, for obstructing the mail, by the U. S. Marshal, and will probably go rom there to do the State some service.

The whole matter has been ably and judiciously nanaged by Mr. Seely and his officers, Mr. Smith and John Parman, and it will teach such scoundrels as Ulmer and Habbard the danger of getting out of the beaten path of truth and honesty. We think it will be some time before another obstrucion is placed on the road in that county. The case was tried at Vienna on Tuesday afternoon and night last, Messrs. Riley, Stanzifer, and Jewett, attorneys for the railroad, for the prosecution, and Mr. Marshall for the defend-

In all our experience, we have seldom seen such in instance of utter human depravity as the evidence in the cases showed in the two men on trial Ulmer confessed to having thrown off the train several times, and to having done the company thousands of dollars damage, and all for spite-about a dollar or two costs. Hubbard had a double bject-to sell provisions to the surviving passengers, and, if possible, to rob the mail. As a specimen of the rules of action by which hese rascals are banded together and governed, we subjoin the following extracts from their constitution and by-laws:

ARTICLE 1. The object of this association is for the mutual and equal pecuniary benefit of each and every sworn member regularly initiated into the mysteries of this order.

ART. 2. Every applicant making application to join this order, shall first take an oath that he will not divulge to his family, to his brother, to his father, or to any living being on earth, any of the secrets of this order, under penalty of death. ART 3. The further and main object of this order is to make money—that is, to establish a currency of our own manufacturing, believing, as we do, that it is less injurious to the public than the who lesale swindling institutions known as banks of issue, who, after getting established, soon repudiate their own notes, and leave the public to stand the loss.

Art. 4. Every member, after fir t joining this

Every brother belonging to this Asso ciation, who unfortunately gets into trouble and needs assistance, shall be defended out of the general fund of the order; and every brother charged with crime must be furnished with the ecessary evidence to prove himself entirely clear om both charge and suspicion, at the expense of the order.

ART. 6. DAN'L HUBBARD, [Signed, etc.,]

THE HENRY TRAGEDY-GEO. M. JESSEE SHOT .in our issue of yesterday we alluded to a movement made by the citizens of Henry county, to get rid of one Porter and his confederates, upon whom suspicion of much crime rests. Porter is the man who was suspected of having poisoned his own wife about a year ago, and of which a full account appeared in the Courier at the time. He was tried for the offence, but the evidence was not suffic ent to commit. Suspicion of guilt, however, was so fixed upon him in the public mind, that he could not escape the popular indignation. The citizens on Tuesday last met in pubic, and ordered him and his confederates to leave the county, and gave them until to-day to do so. At this meeting, Geo. M. Jessee, Esq., a member of the last Legislature from Henry county, took a prominent part. Night before last Mr Jessee was shot by an unknown hand, and if he is not now dead, it is not expected that he will live, as he was speechless at the last account. The shooting of Jessee at this time, and under these circumstances, renders it suspicious that it is the work of Porter or one of his accomplices.

As the Porters were to leave the county to-day, and as they were known to reek with vengeance, it is thought that Jessee is their first victim. As Jessee was a prominent and clever citizen, against whom naught could be said, it is not likely that his assassination will go unavenged. The whole country are his friends.

Intense excitement prevails in the county .-There is no telling what may occur there to-day if the Porters refuse to leave, and they are not safe even if they do leave. If the public mind is satisfied that Jessee was shot by one of the gang there will be trouble, and no little of it. The Porters are understood to be desperate men, but the people of Henry county are the very ones to deal with desperates. They know not fear, and will shrink from nothing to rid themselves of that which they cannot endure. We shall await the issue with painful anxiety, and hope until we hear the result that nothing may be done to shock humanity or to bring odium upon law and order

SIC TRANSIT GLORIA MUNDI.-Col. Bayles was up before the Police Court, yesterday morning, upon trial for cutting Campbell with-not a topacco-but a bowie knife. Thus has ended the olonel's career as tobacco inspector. The Council first gave him the office, and then took it from him to give it to another. They exasperated the old gentleman so intensely by their outrageous treatment, that nothing was left for him but to fight. He showed his willingness to perform his part, either at inspecting tobacco or at fighting. which were the prerogatives and adjuncts of the office our city fathers gave him. We hope we shall have no more such farces; but if we are to have others, we trust that Col. Bayles will be one of the actors. He has played his part much bet ter than the Council played theirs, and deserves much more credit.

DEATH OF FREDERICK TURNER.-This gentle man, who some ten or fifteen years ago was Mar shal of our city, died at his residence in Clark county, Indiana, Wednesday night last. He was one of the most efficient officers Louisville ever had. With the assistance of two or three watchmen he kept the city in order, and caught all the course the boys won the wager, as they are noted thieves and rascals that frequented these parts. He was a man of powerful stature, and was the terror of vagabonds and scoundrels. Had we a few such officers now, we should have a much better governed city, at a much less cost. Mr. Tur. ner's death will be lamented by many, for he was widely known and esteemed. He has relatives in this city who will be p ained to read this notice

BURK's MINSTRELS .- To-night Burk's Metropoof voices has never been presented upon our litan band of minstrels give their second enter tainment at Masonic Temple. It is a good band, and they are well worthy of a visit. Go and see

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON

[Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] The Organization of the Territory of Jefferson— The Gold Mines—Statements of H. J. Graham, Esq.—Prospecting Parties—Description of Coun-try—Emigration in the Spring, etc.

Washington, Jan. 24, 1859. Editors Louisville Courier: The bill organiz ing the Territory of Jefferson, will, it is understood, be reported during the present or coming week. The boundaries assumed by Hon. J. W. Denver, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and which, I presume, will be agreed to, are as follows: "The eastern boundary the 103d degree of longitude west from Greenwich; the northern line to be the 43d degree of the north latitude; the western line the eastern river of the Great Salt Lake Basin, and the southern line to be the northern line of the Territory of New Mexico."-The proposed Territory will embrace partions of Cansas, Nebraska, and Utah.

Within the past few days I have become acquainted with II. J. Graham, Esq., the delegate elect from the new Territory, and I have sought other information, which I presume can be fully relied upon. The subjoined statement I have received from Mr. Graham:

gated scoundrel, and it is a subject of great feli

As early as 1849-50 the miners who crossed the plains to California found gold in small quantities at the head waters of the river Platte, as also in the Black Hills. The first gentleman who prospected with marked success, was Mr. citation of the citzens of the county that he is at Green Russell, who discovered fair prospects for gold on the Sweetwater. The hostility of the Indians to the whites rendered it unsafe to travel mong them until 1857, when they were subdued by Col. Sumner. In the spring of 1858, Russell was reliably informed that he could with safety enetrate their country, and immediately formed company, consisting of himself, his two brothers, and about thirty others, to prospect for gold in the Black Hills. He traveled up the Arkansas on the Santa Fee trail, and crossed into New Mexco, and discovered the first color (as the miners term it) as low down as the crossing in the Arkansas. He prospected from the Spanish Peaks as far north as Fort Laramie, making a distance of some seven hundred miles, according to his reckoning, and found the color in nearly very day's travel. He penetrated the mounains, but from the insufficiency of provisions and nelp, was unable to fully satisfy himself of the extent of the gold deposits. He returned to he mouth of Cherry Creek about the first of August, and camped with his company, a number of whom went to collecting gold, while others went New Mexico for the purpose of laying in suplies for the winter, being convinced that it would ally pay to make extensive arrangements for rashing during the coming season.

> News having reached the States about the niddle of August that gold had been discovered, rospecting and mining companies were immediitely organized. The first to start from the Missouri river was H. J. Graham's train, composed f D. C. Oakes, Abram Walord, C. M. Miles, and George R. Pancost, of Pacific City, Mills county. They arrived at Cherry Creek about the 10th of October, making the trip from the mouth of Platte in twenty-eight days, with two wagons-one span f horses to a wagon. The wagons were heavily oaded, but the trip was accomplished with com parative ease. There are no streams of magniade to cross, no hills to climb, no marshes; good water and grass along the whole extent of the road, and, with the exception of 150 miles, sufficient wood for ordinary purposes. Mr. Graham met Mr. Russell at Cherry Creek, who gave him an extended history of his explorations and discoveries. Being satisfied that it would pay, Mr. lussell and company commenced prospecting for hemselves, turning their course northward; and rossing the Platte at the mouth of Cherry Creek, hey found a well-traveled road, used by emigrants o California since 1850.

The scenery between the Platte and Cashe de Powder rivers is romantic, picturesque, and beau-nounces them to be good, and promising better, tiful. The mountains overhanging you on the West, from which issue, every few miles, unfailng streams sufficiently large to carry immense mounts of machinery. The country is described Mr. Graham to be the most charming he has ver seen. He was directed from this point to ollow the Cashe de Powder river, where quartz ould be found in abundance, but being delighted with the locality, and finding good prospects for gold on all the streams, with plenty of deer, elk, ntelope, etc., and a fine place for his stock to graze, he concluded to defer any further prospect ng, and return to the same spot in the spring. The creeks and streams are skirted with rich ottoms, from 1 to 11/2 miles wide. Cottonwood and oine forests, thirty or forty miles square, between latte river and Arkansas, in sight of Auroria.-Auroria is s tuated at the mouth of Cherry creek. 0 miles north of Pike's Peak, and contains 17 ouses. Montana, about 8 miles up the river, about 80 houses. San Vrain, an old Adoha fort, built for an Indian trading post 18 or 20 years go, in a state of decay, was fixed up by Messrs M. Stocking and C. M. Mills, and made a point or wintering stock.

Coal is said to be in the mountains in abundance. t is also found on the North Platte, from Laramie in for fully one hundred miles.

In some portions of the country as much as an verage yield of one dollar per hour can be obined. At Cherry creek, as Mr. Russell and company passed through on their return, they found me three hundred people. A town had been aid off, houses built, claims staked off, and the oundation laid for a new State of the confederacy. t was determined to hold an election for a dele gate to Congress. Election precincts were estabished, due notice given, and an election held on the 6th day of November, which resulted in the election of H. J. Graham, Esq., as delegate.

From all portions of the country we hear of mpanies organizing to start to the mines at the pening of spring. All the principal cities of the Inion will send large numbers-indeed, it is supposed that the emigration to Jefferson will be equal to the emigration to California in 1849-'50, The gold found at Pike's Peak is superior to the California gold, an ounce being worth a fraction upwards of $20.

There is no deception in regard to the existence gold in abundance. The Georgia mining companies, and some of the principal banking houses n the States have sent out agents to prospect the country, all of whom unite in rendering a most avorable report. It is upon the strength of these reports that it is fully believed that the emigration to the mines during the year will reach the number of one hundred thousand. It is, I learn, the intention of one of the most extensive banking houses in the country, to establish early in the spring an agency for the purchase of gold, at or near Pike's Peak. The country not only abounds in mineral wealth, but is also, I am informed, cultivable, and capable of yielding remunerative agricultural crops. In view of this, I would advise persons emigrating to provide themselves with farming mplements of all descriptions, and I have no doubt that all who go and work the soil will be as amply remunerated as those who dig for gold. will speak of this subject again. I have learned that companies will soon be organized in Louisville, Lexington, and in the principal cities and towns of Kentucky. All I hope is, that the brightest anticipations of this new El Dorado may be more than realized.

The Territory should and doubtless will be immediately organized, and I predict, within five vears at farthest, Jefferson will be a sovereign State of the American Union. OCCASIONAL.

The report in the Courier yesterday in reference to the young man Morris, who was accidental jy drowned by falling overboard from the Diana. was wholly erroneous. He was in no way implicated in the killing of the German, as we stated, and knew nothing whatever of that unfortunate affair. It was committed by other parties, and he certainly was not aware of it, and probably not even in the city at the time. We are also credibly informed that the deceased was wholly innocent of the crime of arson, as alleged, and that he was at home when the plank Squires, the light tenor of the opera, and Amodio, the heavy basso, will appear together in Lucia de Lammermoor to night. A finer contrast

STEAM LAUNCE MA-ROBERT.

RIVER ZAMBESI, June 23, 1858. )
My Dear Sir—By the departure of the colonial ressel Pearl, I am enabled to communicate with vessel Pearl, I am enabled to communicate with my friends at home by the overland India route, and I have much pleasure in informing you that we have been very clearly favored with weather ever since we left Liverpool. I feel thankful for the mercy which has watched over us, for, with the weight on our deck, a gale would have wrought a fearful stramash. I was obliged to part with Mrs. L. and Oswell at the Cape, but we were then met by Mr. and Mrs. Mosfatt, from Kuruman, and she will go with them thither, and afterward join me by the overland way beyond that. This we selt to be a trial, but now see it was for the best, for the Portuguese and natives are at war, and cannot wing of win them thither, and atterward join me by the overland way beyond that. This we felt to be a trial, but now see it was for the best, for the Portuguese and natives are at war, and cannot pass up the river. You are aware that I did not see the lower portion of the Zambesi, but left it at Mazaro, a place seventy miles from its mouth.—This lower part had to be all explored, and that took up about a month, from the number of mouths it possesses. We found a very good bar and harbor at the river, or branch, by which we entered. It is called Kongone, and has ten mouths, if I may so call them, sucking water by them out of the main stream. One of these is a natural canal, five miles long, through which we entered the Zambesi. Our ship, the Pearl, was a screw, and would not back readily, and was quite too deep for exploring. We were, moreover, hampered by very stringent orders not to run any risk of detaining her in the river, but rather land our goods on an island and send her off. This we have done, though with a paddle steamer of fire or six feet draught, we could have gone to Tete.

We are below Mazare, and next week will go to Tete, where my men are waiting for me. It is said that many of them have died of smallpox, a disease unknown in their own country; but the rest purchased pigs, goats, and politry with their evinings, and refuse either to slaughter or sell them till I came. We went up to Mazare in the Ma Robert, and encountered the enemy, consisting of 200 well armed natives (with Tower muskets). We approached them slowly, and when within hail I called out that we were English, and pointed to the English ensign. They gave a shout of joy, and we soon saw them running down with bananas for sale. We mean to keep rid of the courted to be the the service of the courted to provide the courted to the English each of the courted to the En

My brother found very good cotton in the delta,
but all complain that wars ruin their cultivation.

Of the river I can now speak with confidence, as I had the company of three naval officers. It is four to six feet water could run upon it during seven or eight months of the year with ease. We all enjoy good health, no case of fever having appeared among us, and we have been in the delta live weeks. But this I knew beforehand to be the healthy season, or winter, and selected health in preference to a full river.

Mr. Rae, a Glasgowegian, proas they are got from the surface in the bank of the Muatoze, where they have been exposed to the action of floods and atmosphere for ages.— There is an immense coal field here, and many of the seams crop out. With coal, and the best iron ore in abundance, surely Africa will not al-ways be the trodden down nation it has been. our vessel was the first that ever steamed at Tete, and we were visited as if we had been another leviathan. The country was in a state of war, and no Portaguese durst pass, but we did, our passport being the English name. This is both parties. Many of the officers wished to accept my mediation, and the rebels all did, but the Governor would not give in. A decisive blow is to be struck soon, but the rebels being mostly runaway slaves, they will hold out. Two, who acted as pilots on board, once wanted me to buy them, to get out of the scrape. It is sad to see so fine a country in this state. We met some very fine cotton growing wild wherever it has once been sown. It is long in the staple, and has been drinking, and that a quarrel took place between them. During the quarrel, Mrs. Hollinger started to go into the cellar to procure some food. Just as she was about to descend the stairs, her husband struck her a blow in the face, with his fist, which exaspented her to such a degree that she plunged a butcher krife, which she had in her hand, into the neck of her husband, causing his death in about two minutes. ntroduced as its name imports. ING.—A double elopement of an extraordinary character recently took place from a section of country lying between Bethany and West Alexander, east of this city. To begin at the beginning, the parties to the elopement have been enjoying a rather loose sort of society up there for some time. Mr. and Mrs. George Carsner, a girl named Curtiss, a Mr. May, and others, have been man of three naval officers. It is generally from 1,000 to 2,000 yards wide; but when it has islands it spreads out to 2½ or 3 niles. These are the worst parts; in the narower parts we have from 3 to 7 fathoms. In hese broad parts a channel of 2 or 2½ fathoms an be found only by searching. One of my reends remarked, it was more like an inland search of the companion of the free-love line. They introduced, by way of killing time, a new game called the "Shanghai game," which is described as follows: One of the gentlemen mouats a chair, flaps his arms like a rooster, and crows lustily. The first lady detect an de found only by scarcing. One of my reends remarked, it was more like an inland sea han a river. I still adhere to the opinion I have all along expressed, that a vessel drawing from till the female is overtaken, which, by arrange till the female is overtaken, which, by arrange till the female is overtaken. ment, the pursuer does not succeed in doing till she has run some distance from the house. This game was played for a long time with huge success, and at last an intimacy, savoring at least of impropriety, grew out of it. Carsner became exceedingly fond of Miss Curtiss, and every time he crowed she was sure to laugh. This kind of thing didn't suit DAVID LIVINGSTONE.

LOUISVILLE: FRIDAY, ..... JANUARY 28, 1859. Reading Matter on every page.

One of the Congressional Hobbies. The number of broken-down political hacks who are now members of Congress, either upon the floor or in the lobby, is very great. They are in a starving condition, and they are too proud to rob any body but Uncle Sam. Hence they have gone to work to combine influences enough to log-roll Pacific Railroad bills through Congress, that will make them all rich for years and years

In an article some days ago, we enumerated a dozen schemes now before Congress for a railroad to the Pacific. Some of these schemes are the most outrageous ever conceived by the mind of a national swindler. There is stealing enough in them to make half a dozen companies as rich as the East India. They would take the public lands through the territories of the U.S., a distance of from 10 to 40 miles on each side of the road, which would make a clean sweep of from 20 to 80 miles. And then, too, the wording of the schemes is so careful, that the company can reject bad lands in one place, and take good in another, so that they might leave the Government the lands covered by the Rocky Mountains, while they would take all the good acres-for it would require all, from ocean to ocean, to make up the quota of good.

It is such grand swindling schemes as these that are now before Congress to impede the passage of a genuine Pacific Railroad bill, or, in other words, to prevent the General Government from beloing the Southern Pacific route as she should None of the roads named or thought of can com pete with the Southern. This is well known to all the schemers, and hence the Southern route. upon its own intrinsic merits, has to fight a dozen or more schemers, each and all combined against it. And why? Simply because the Southern route contemplates a reliable railroad for the good of the country, while the other schemers look to individual emolument.

It will link with indissoluble bands the two extremes of the Republic. It will insure the defense ntry against the armies and armaments of the world. It will facilitate the transportation of the mails, and open a highway of commerce over which the merchandise not only of the Eastern and Western States will pass, but upon which the commerce of Asia will move in its passage to Europe. It is vain to attempt an enumeration of the great, the good, and the magnificent results of such an enterprise. If there were no other advantage in it, the farms, and towns, and cities it will build up and open along its line, through such lands, and beneath such a sky as those of Texas. lands, and beneath such a sky as those of Texas, New Mexico, etc., on the 32d parallel, would be national good enough to make the road a sine qua non.

Hon. S. A. Douglas.

It may not be possible, however, for the South ern Pacific route to get any help from Congress while so many schemers are on the floor and in the lobby to fill their own empty pockets with stealings from the National Treasury. The hope is for the company to go right on building their road, while the opposing routes are quarreling, and fighting, and cutting one another's throats. By the meeting of the next Congress there will be enough done on the Southern route to show that it must be the road. It will then be no longer possible to keep back help from this route, and it will go right on. All that the Government will have to do is to help this road through her own Territory, a distance of about 500 miles. The States of Louisiana, Texas, and California will attend to the rest of the route, and in this way Uncle Sam will get the cheapest, the best, and quickest made road that he can get to the Pacific.

Forney and the President. Forney, of the Philadelphia Press, has made much reputation by quarreling with the President of the United States, that he can't think of quitting his blackguardism against that high of-On the 25th inst, he had nearly a column of vulgar abuse of the President, charging him with not proving true to Democratic principles,

It is won derful that such a man as Forney should talk of the Democracy of any one. He did all he could, at the recent election in his own State, to combine the odds and ends, and to defeat the Democracy. Anybody-Abolitionist, Black Republican, Plug Ugly, Free-Soiler, or Free-Nigger-was good enough companion for the politics of Forney, provided he opposed the President. Forney had but one question to ask the man, the beast, or the devil that he was to combine with and vote with, and that was whether or not he liked President Buchanan. If he liked the President, Forney would have nothing to do with him; but if he did not like the President, then he was Forney's confederate .-They at once began eating, sleeping, talking, voting, and acting every species of political ras-

And yet this man Forney is talking about true Democracy-Democracy unlike that of the President-Democracy of the Forney as contradistinguished from the Buchanan school. The poor man has lost his wits. His little soft head has collapsed with the idea of being great enough to quarrel with the President of the United States. He is pouring out his curses againt the President, while he Democracy really laugh at him; and the Abolitionists, Free-Soilers, Free-Niggers, who cry well done, have really a contempt for him, and will turn him off when they are done using him. If he ever had the confidence or respect of either party, he has lost it, and does not deserve ever to cover it. His desire to quarrel with a Presider as a means of acquiring distinction, is akin to that which impelled Herostratus to burn the Temple of Diana. The difference in result is that poo Forney has burned himself instead of the temple, other is a new Machine, making the Celebrated Grov & Baker Stitch; or, The Lock Stitch that is Locked. and become famous only in a little cloud of his own smoke that will soon pass away.

Our Court of Appeals has decided that Thomas, the Know Nothing candidate for Jailer in Louisville at the last election, is entitled to the office of Jailer, as against Batman, Democrat. in Louisville at the last election, is entitled to the office of Jailer, as against Batman, Democrat. This is a case where the strict technicality of the law has defeated justice. That Batman received a majority of votes over Thomas, is an undisputed point, and he was therefore legally elected. But some of the clerks in direliction of their duty, neglected to sign their names to every page of the poil books; and two Know Nothing squires, in violation of law, rejected these votes and gave Thomas his certificate of election. Batman served a notice upon Thomas to contest the election, but the Court decided after the legal period had expired, and they further decided a mandamus an improper remedy. Thus Thomas, in violation of justice and the expressed will of the people, holds an office which of right belongs to an honest Democrat, who the people elected to the position. Few gentlemen of generous bearing and fine sensibilities would accept an office obtained in such a manner. One feature of this decision is gratifying, and that is that our highest judicial tribunal, although a majority of Democrats compose it, unlike those of some other States, is unwarped improper feeling, and is determined to administer the law irrespective of political feeling or party ing, and that is that our highest judicial tribunal, although a majority of Democrats compose it, unlike those of some other States, is unwarped improper feeling, and is determined to administer the law irrespective of political feeling or party predjudice.—Kentucky Statesman.

you offered me an affront so wanton, unprovoked and unjusticable, that I am obliged to infer it must have been the impulse of momentary passion, and not of deliberate premeditation. This note is written for the purpose of affording you an opportunity of saying whether or not my conclusion s correct; and, further, of affording you an op-portunity of retracting the offensive language which you thus gratuitously and unwarrantably applied to me.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, 1859. Sir: Your note of yesterday was handed me this morning. In reply, I have to say that you yesterday made a charge that the lately-appoint-ed federal officers in Illinois were corrupt, dishonest men-or words to that effect. You knew my son to be one of those officers, and you could not expect me to hear such a charge without riod of your remarks, you attributed to me stat ments which I had not made, I requested that in quoting me you would do so truthfully. These remarks were certainly not "deliberately premeditated," but they cannot be qualified correctly as the "impulse of momentary passion." The first was prompted by a determination to defend the honor and character of my son, as dear to me as my own, against an attack so general in its terms as necessarily to include him; and the second was the exercise of my right to rectify a misrepresen tation of my own remarks. Respectfully, etc.,
Hon. S. A. Douglas. G. N. FITCH.

Washington, Jan. 22, 91/2 P. M. Washington, Jan. 22, 35 P. M.

Sir: Your note of this date has just been placed in my hands. I admit, without hesitation, your right and duty to do justice to the reputation of your son. At the same time I maintain my right, in the discharge of my duty as Senator, to comment freely and fully on the character of executive appointmen's, especially in my own State. I deny, however, that my general remarks in relation to the list of Illinois appointees, confirmed by the Senate during my absence, could be fairly interpreted to embrace your san. When be fairly interpreted to embrace your son. ou seemed so to construe them, I promptly reied that what I had said of the Illinois appoint ments was true as a general rule, but that there were exceptions, among whom I recognized some of my own friends. Alluding particularly to your son, I added that I had nothing to say in regard to the merits of his appointment, choosing to leave that question where I placed it by my remarks to the Senate during the last session, in your presence, at the time of his confirmation.—You now admit that you understood this explanation to exempt your son from the application of my general remarks, and yet you have failed to my general remarks; and yet, you have failed to withdraw the offensive language, but on the con-trary, at a subsequent stage of the debate, when logizing for a breach of Senatorial decorum, ou expressly declared that you had nothing to etract—thus appearing, in my apprehension, to e-affirm the objectionable words. As to the other ground of offence admitted in our reply to my note, I have to say that I did not inderstand you to assume to correct me in a quoation of your language, as I was unconscious of taking any such citation, but to repeat the origi-al offence in another form; otherwise, I would have made a proper response on the instant.

This explanation, which is due alike to us both, on the points presented in your reply, affords you another opportunity of withdrawing the offensiv words which you admit you applied to me in ye terday's debate. Respectfully, etc.,

S. A. DOUGLAS. Hon. GRAHAM N. FITCA.

Washington, Jan. 23, 1859. Sir: Your note of last evening! was handed me at 12 M., to-day. Your explanation in regard to my son being now explicit, I have no hesitatation in saying that if you had excepted him from your charge, or not made it general, I would not have deemed myself warranted in repelling it in the words of which you complain as offensive, and which, in consequence of your explanation, I now withdraw.

I am also informed by your note that, if you had at, in my closing remarks explanatory to the the responsibility for the introduction of which rested solely with you, I should have withdrawn, as I now do, the second offensive remarks, if you had made the same satisfactory explanation then dential. von have now made.

Respectfully, etc., G. N. FITCH. Hon. S. A. Douglas. Washington, Jan. 24, 1859. SIR: Your note of yesterday has been received No one doubts the necessity of a railroad to the Pacific. The question admits of no discussion.—

and while I accept your withdrawal of the words to which I have taken exception, I owe it to my self to protest against the idea you seem to enter tain, that my note of Saturday was intended as a precedent and inducing condition of the redress which I solicited, instead of being, as I certainly esigned it merely responsive to the

How the President's Message was Received in PARAGUAY .- The N. Y. Tribune has a letter from Paraguay, giving an account of the reception of the message of the President of the United States by the President of Paraguay, as follows:

When the message reached Paraguay there happened to be two or three American mission-tries sojourning at Asuncion. Hearing how matters stood, they determined to call on the President. On being admitted, they found him with a paper, containing the document referred to, in his hand pacing his apartment in a very excited mood. t occurred to them that they had better withdraw out while they were deliberating on the subject opez turned hastily round to them: "This paper," aid he, shaking the document, "tells fals From it North Americans infer that I am a tyrant and a thief. I am neither. Your steamer was on forbidden waters, but she was fired on without any special order from me. The Navigation Com-pany shall be paid every patacone they have lost, if the thing is left for arbitration. I am willing to pay anything that honest men say is right, ex-cept they say it is right to pay for profits which were never realized. The Company, I am informed, will not accept compensation for what the have lost, but they want to be paid for what the might make if business remained good for years t ome, and any such monstrous demand I will ne

A. Bugs, Roaches, Fleas, Mosquitoes, Moths, Garden Insects, Ants, etc.

The chemical preparations known under the above title for the last 22 years throughout Europe, where they have met with a triumphant success, have acquired for their inventor and manufacturer a world-wide-celebrity attested by the Emperors of Russia, France, Austria, the Queen of England, the Kings of Belgium, Holland, Naples, Bavaria, Saxony, etc.; and in America their efficiency has been indorsed by the Directors of Public Institutions, and the approval of numerous private citizens, and that they are the only remedies in the world sure to exterminate all kinds of vermin.

Meyer's Miraculous Preparations destroy the unwelcome intruders without mercy, and never fail. His Art has brought death to millions of them in the world, and from this day the watchword of all housekeepers, merchants, ship owners, and husbandmen will be "No more vermin."

HAVE this day sold my stock of Boots and Shoes to Mr. Samuel L. Lee, who will continue the business at the old stand. Thankful for the liberal patronage bestowed on me, I would recommend my successor as in every way worthy of the same. My books are at the old stand, and I would request all those indebted to me to call and settle forthwith, as my business must be closed up.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on scrictly scientific principles after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Bozhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every herve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Burhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince how infinitely superior tits to all these initiations. is to all these imitations.

Our printers have a very exalted oninion of steamboats, and innocently think their capacity rom Cairo correspondents. The other day they nade us say the "Lady Pike was trying to ascend the falls with 400 tons of freight for Cincinnati, and 397 bales of cotton for the East," and yester ay they had "4,000 tons of railroad iron on the ir Wm. Wallace."

The facts as written were that the Lady Pike had 400 boxes of fruit, and the Wallace four hun ired tons of railroad iron.

We learn that Morris, the deck passenge owned by falling overboard from the Diana, was ost when the boat was a short distance abou Memphis. Capt. Sturgeon was or watch at the time, and as soon as it was known that a man was overboard, he had the boat stopped, and the yawl sent out to the rescue, but no trace of him ald be seen, though the boat was backed down The drowned man was a native of this city well knows as Wm. Buck Morris, and was respectably connected. He had made a coal boat trip to New Orleans, and at the time of the accident was sit ting on the clock of the accident was sit-ting on the clock of the afterguard, and it was supposed that he went to sleep, and fell overboard, as it was in the evening. There was a large number of deck passengers on the boat—over one hundred, and most of them were returned coalboatmen. DIANA FOR NEW ORLEANS .- The great Diana, the most perfect and sumptuous of the Louisville Lightning Line, takes her departure to New Or-ieans this evening. She starts at 5 o'clock, in charge of the gallant Sturgeon, the most attentive and courteous captain of the fleet, with our clever friend, O. L. Smith, in the clerk's office. The Robt. J. Ward, from this port, arrived it New Orleans on Monday.

The South America and Eunice passed Wheeling Wednesday evening, the former for New Orleans and the latter for this port. We learn that the Evansville and Paducah packet, Silver Star, bursted a cylinder near Shaw-neetown, and returned to Paducah for repairs.

The Landis, from New Orleans, telegran nercial at Memphis Wednesday. She is due to-morrow evening. FOR THE EAST. - The leviathan Jacob Strader is the mail and passenger packet for Cincinnati and the East at noon to day. She travels at locomotive speed, has good officers, and can accommodate 300 passengers. The attentive cierk, R. S. Dunning, is prepared to give through tickets. FOR HENDERSON.—The fast packet Scioto No. 2 having been detained by bad weather, and wors roads, which prevented the hauling of frei takes her departure to Henderson and all places this evening. She starts from Portland The Sinking of the Delegate.—This boat, which was recently sunk in the lower Ohio by colision with the Ella, was owned in Pittsburgh by the Messrs. Rea, and was insured for $800 in the Western, $2,000 in the Monongahela, and $2,625 in the Eureka, making a total of $5,425. She was valued last year at $11,000—a No. 2 boat, and built by Capt. Thos. Rogers, at Elizabeth, in 1854, but did not come out until Jan. 20, 1855, so that she was precisely four years old to a day from the day she was entered at the Custom House to the day she was sunk. Capt. Batcheior, agent of the underwriters at Pattsburgh, is on his way to the wreck.

THE SUPERVISORS' REPORT .- The last report of the Inspectors was got up for the avowed purpose of informing Government and the public of the great improvements brought about by the steamboat law, the vast saving of life and property, and probably for the Inspectors to suggest new inventions. There is very little said in regard to the utter worthlessness of the effects. gard to the utter worthlessness of the safety gard to the after worthlessness of the safety guards, safety fuses etc., in use, and the defects in the pilots rules, which the continued heavy lists of disasters conclusively prove. The report, too, is very tender in regard to explosions, in fact, makes them secondary in importance, with a bare mention, as will be seen by the report of the Pennsylvania disaster, one of the most terrible on record. The preserves the safety of the preserves the safety of the preserves the safety of the preserves the safety in the safety safety and the safety s on record. The paragraph which we quoted yes-terday commences thus:

On the 13th of June last the steamboat Pennsylvania, when near Ship Island, on the Mississippi river, was lestroyed by fire, occasioned by the explosion of the boilers.

The fact in point was that the boilers exploded, The fact in point was that the boilers exploded, making the boat a wreck, scattering death all around, and subsequently she caught fire. To the casual reader it would appear by the report that the boat was lost by fire and not by explosion. The Rev. Capt. Wm. Dean has been elected resident of the Marine Association at Pittsburgh. off another load of sugar and molasses from the Sam, to be transferred to the mailboat. She takes sugar through to Cincinnati at $1 per hogshead, and molasses 40 cents per barrel, which are very fair rates, and an advantage to Southern freights for reshipment.

OLD DUKE GONE.—Yesterday Capt. Applegate, of the Grand Duke, sold the hull of the old Duke to Mr. Webb, the jailer at Brandenburg. The price paid was $1,000. The boat is to be used as a wharfboat, and will prove serviceable in that Capacity.

XXXVth CONGRESS-SECOND SESSION WASHINGTON, D. C., January 27 .- SENATE.

An act was passed providing for the payment of expenses incurred by the investigating committees of the House of Representatives.

On motion of Mr. Green, of Mo., the Sccretary of the Navy was directed to farnish all the information supplied by Lieut. Craven of his survey of the Atrot ship.

the Atroto ship canal.

Various matters pertaining to the Postoffice were referred, and among the rest, a resolution was offired by Mr. Hale, of N. H., requiring an acceleration of the mails between New York and Washington Vashington. Mr. Fitch, from the Committee on Printing, reported in favor of printing 5,000 extra copies of the majority and minority reports respecting the acquisition of Cuba.

Mr. Hale opposed it as an useless expenditure, but the printing of the extra copies was cordered.

Mr. King, of New York, introduced a resolution especting the tariff, which was laid over until to morrow.

Mr. Rice, of Minnesota, introduced a res tion directing the Secretary of War to lay before the Senate the reports of Col. Wright's campaign against the Indians in Oregon. Agreed to. The Pacific Railroad bill was then taken up

The Pacific Railroad bill was then taken up and various verbal amendments were made previous to a direct vote upon the bill.

Mr. Doolittle, of Wisconsin, added an additional section, intended to prevent speculators from keeping back the land from settlement, as they did with those granted to the Illinois Central Railroad Co. Adopted.

Mr. Doolittle then moved that the Secretary of the Interior, on the passage of this act, be authorized to take proposals for the northern and southzed to take proposals for the northern and south rn routes, leaving the central route as it now is, nd report to Congress at the commencement of

WE have permanently established ourselves for the manufacture of Files and Baspa. We invite merchants and consumers, especially those who want to buy and sell a superior larticle, to an examination of our stock. We have 8,000 dozen of hand-saw Files, mill-saw Files, and Bastard, second-cut and smooth, dead smooth, and sell them at reasonable prices at wholesale and retail. We are assured, from the custom we have now, that in two years Kentuckians will not call for any other Files but ours, and so in neighboring States. We also recut Files for a little more than half the price of a new one. We warrant both old and new Files. m25 dly
